

Tony Gemignani and the San Francisco Giants Team Up for the Eighth Season on Limited-Edition Pizzas in Support of George Mark Children's House

Select Slice House locations will serve specialty pizza flavors from current Giants players, with proceeds benefitting a beloved Bay Area organization.

SAN FRANCISCO (April 18, 2024) — Restaurateur and 13-time World Pizza Champion, Tony Gemignani has teamed up with San Francisco Giants - including players Logan Webb and Michael Conforto - to launch two seasonal Slice House pizza flavors in support of George Mark Children's House. Tony worked closely with Webb and Conforto to craft unique, specialty pizzas that highlight both of the players' favorite toppings. The limited-edition 20" New York style pizzas will be available beginning today, April 18 through mid-September. $1 from each slice and $6 from each full pizza sold will be donated to the Bay Area organization – which is celebrating its 20th anniversary this year – to support its mission of providing compassionate care for children and young adults with serious medical conditions.

"It's an honor to continue working with the incredible teams at George Mark Children's House and the San Francisco Giants to support such an important cause," commented Gemignani. "As a father myself, I wholeheartedly admire their work and the unmatched assistance they provide to children and their families. We're thrilled to continue this collaboration for an eighth season, and most importantly, help increase awareness and financially contribute to such an honorable cause."

Served exclusively at select Slice House locations, the Conforto's Grand Slam pizza is topped with tomato sauce, mozzarella, Cup & Char thin cut pepperoni, serrano peppers, house-made hot honey, Romano cheese, oregano, and garlic oil ($7.25 slice / $41.40 whole pizza). The Webb's Double Sausage is topped with tomato sauce, mozzarella, Italian sausage, sliced link sausage, Cup & Char thin pepperoni, red onions, Romano cheese, oregano, and garlic oil ($7.25 slice / $41.40 whole pizza).

"We're delighted to partner with local community leaders such as Logan, Michael and Tony to see firsthand the direct impact that their donations have on our services," said Dr. Kathy Hull, Founder of George Mark Children's House. "As we celebrate our 20th anniversary this year, we are grateful for this partnership that supports our mission to provide extraordinary care for the children at George Mark."

The Webb's Double Sausage and Conforto's Grand Slam pizzas will be offered at Tony's Coal Fired Pizza & Slice House in North Beach (neighboring Tony's Pizza Napoletana), as well as Slice House by Tony Gemignani Haight Street, Belmont, Walnut Creek, San Leandro, Folsom, and Mountain View.

ABOUT GEORGE MARK CHILDREN'S HOUSE

Established in San Leandro, CA in 2004, George Mark Children's House is a model of compassionate care for children and young adults with serious medical conditions, and support to their families, provided in a beautiful home-like setting. As the pioneer in the United States for providing pediatric palliative care in a residential locale, George Mark has led the way for additional homes to adopt their comprehensive approach to caring for seriously ill children.

Since opening its doors two decades ago, George Mark has had the honor of caring for more than 1,100 children and provided support to over 3,300 family members. Its dedicated interdisciplinary -team provides around-the-clock critical care including respite, transitional, end-of-life and bereavement support. The George Mark staff and volunteers create childhood experiences that enrich quality of life and spark fun and joy, striving to make every day the best day for each child. Memory making activities at the House include art, music, outdoor play, water therapy and interactions with engaging therapy pets like dogs, horses, and even camels.

ABOUT THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS

One of the oldest teams in Major League Baseball, the 141-year-old franchise moved to San Francisco from New York in 1958. After playing a total of 42 years in Seals Stadium and Candlestick Park, the team moved to the privately constructed, downtown ballpark on the corner of 3rd and King in 2000. The organization is widely recognized for its innovative business practices and baseball excellence having been named in the past decade the Sports Organization of the Year by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal, Organization of the Year by Baseball America and ESPN's Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year. Oracle Park is also the only ballpark in the country to have earned Silver, Gold and Platinum LEED certification for an existing building.

Since opening its gates, Oracle Park has become internationally renowned as a premier venue in the world of both sports and entertainment. On the diamond, more than 66 million spectators have witnessed countless magical moments, including three World Series Championships (2010, 2012 & 2014), the raising of four National League Pennants and eight playoff appearances. The ballpark has also hosted some of music's biggest acts, including Dead & Company, Lady Gaga, Beyoncé & Jay-Z, Ed Sheeran, the Rolling Stones, the Eagles, Bruce Springsteen and the E-Street Band, Green Day and Billy Joel.

Off the field, the Giants Community Fund uses baseball and softball to promote health, education and character development to propel youth in underserved regions to be positive forces in their communities. The Fund, a 501(c)(3) public charity, is managed by a volunteer Board of Directors and sustained by contributions from individuals, businesses, and foundations through a number of special partnerships and fundraisers. Since its inception in 1991, the Fund has donated $44 million to community efforts and has served more than 435,000 youth through its flagship program, Junior Giants.
